What's scarier...a Dragon or the first day of school?

This magical story addresses fears and teaches students to find what it truly means to be Brave and find confidence within themselves. Everyone has something they're afraid of, but it's OK to feel scared. The lesson learned is we cannot let fears control us, we need to learn to take control of our fears.

Presentation includes an interactive story time, Social-Emotional Learning activities/discussions, and an explanation of what it takes to create a book. Geared towards specific grade levels, A.K. Karos is available to do individual class visits to large assemblies.

NO APPEARANCE FEE. A pre-sale guarantee of 15 books is recommended.
If 50 books are purchased, 15% of sales will be given to the school PTA.
Students may also purchase books the day of the event.

Includes

- Interactive Story time
- Q & A
- Author Signing
- Art Activity for TK-2
- Writer's Workshop 3-5
